I, Felice d'Alfonso del Sordo, declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the following is true and correct:

1. I am a lawyer licensed to practice law in Rome, Italy, and I maintain an office at Via Monte Santo 2, Rome, Italy. I hold a law degree from the University of Rome and was admitted to practice law in Italy in 1984.
2. I represent Sperone Westwater Inc. and Sperone Westwater Gallery, LLC (collectively, the "Gallery"), in the action that the Archivio Alighiero Boetti, Agata Boetti, Matteo Boetti and Annemarie Sauzeau (collectively, "Defendants") commenced against the Gallery and Renato Cardi ("Cardi") in January 2008 in Milan, Italy (the "Italian Suit").

3. I have known Agata Boetti, Mattco Boetti and Annemarie Sauzeau for 20 years.

Each one understands and speaks English very well.

4. I have read the Gallery's Complaint filed in this action on April 1, 2008.

5. Before Defendants commenced the Italian Suit, they were in lengthy negotiations with the Gallery and myself in an attempt to avoid litigation. I know this because during 2006 and 2007, I communicated on the Gallery's behalf with Mr. Andrea Barenghi, Defendants' counsel. The negotiations included plans for a meeting in September 2007 between some of the parties without their lawyers, but Defendants did not agree.

6. Without prior notice to me, Defendants initiated the Italian Suit in the intellectual-property division of the Tribunale Ordinario di Milano (the "Tribunal") in January 2008.

7. I have appeared before the Tribunal many times over the past 20 years. The Italian Suit will be presided over by one judge. There are no juries at the Tribunal.

8. The Tribunal strongly prefers oral to written testimony, and I expect that the Gallery's principals – Gian Enzo Sperone, Angela Westwater and David Leiber – probably will have to travel to Milan to give evidence.

9. To my knowledge and belief, the Tribunal has no familiarity with United States federal law or New York common law and has no experience interpreting or applying either.

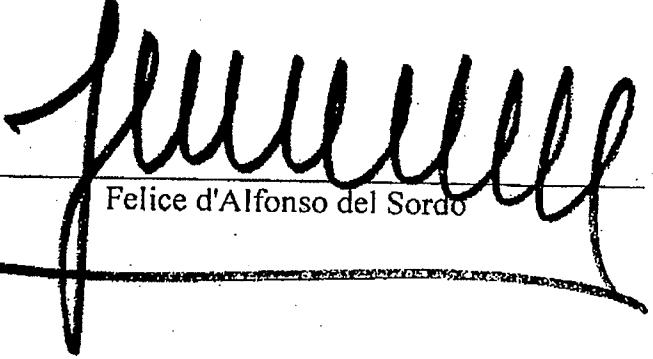

10. The Tribunal is not considered an authority on art, nor is it generally known to rule on the authenticity of a particular work of art. I believe that a party desiring such a ruling would have to request the report of an expert based on a physical examination of the artwork. Defendants have not requested any such report. Even if they were to make a request and the Tribunal granted it, I am not aware of any mechanism by which the Tribunal could compel production of the Boetti works at issue, most of which I understand from the Gallery to be in the possession of private individuals residing in the United States. I therefore do not believe the Tribunal would be able, even if it were willing, to determine the authenticity of the works based on expert examination of them.

11. Based on my experience litigating before the Tribunal, I expect the Italian Suit to last at least three years. I will file a response to the Writ of Summons in that action on or before October 8, 2008. The initial hearing, which is a procedural formality, is scheduled for October 28, 2008. I expect that the first substantive hearing will occur four to six months later. After that, hearings likely will occur every eight or ten months.

12. In a letter to me dated April 3, 2007, Cardi stated that he had "assigned" Boetti works, including those at issue in this dispute, to the Gallery. (See attached EXHIBIT "A") In the original Italian-language letter, Cardi used the word "ceduto," which can be translated as "sold" or "assigned." In the context of the letter as a whole, I understand Cardi to say that he sold the works to the Gallery.

- SALEZUCCHERO, 1988, blue ballpoint on paper, 71.5 x 101.5 cm;
- I SEI SENSI, 1980, blue ballpoint on paper, polyptych, 9 panels, 100 x 630 cm.

I state that of these works, in the time before the assignment, I had sent to the Archivio Alighiero Boetti all documents requested by the latter, so as to effect the formal archiving of the works.

I add that I sent to that Archivio in addition material in my possession pertaining to the traceability of the works and their provenance.

For completeness, I state that to date I still have the originals of the so-called "authentications" of which I have sent you copies.

This declaration is made by me as legal representative of the Cardi Galleria d'Arte S.r.l.

It is not of a private nature and may be revealed to any interested party.
